【10】 次の英文を読んで、各問いに答えなさい。

My name is Jack Brown. I am (あ) 15 years old. My father is an American and my mother is a Japanese. My father is forty-seven years old. My mother is forty-eight years old. We live in San Francisco.

I went to Japan last December. I left San Francisco airport by plane. I arrived at Fukuoka Airport in nine hours. My aunt Keiko came to see me at the airport. I was very happy to see her again. She took me to her house. Her house was in a small town near Fukuoka. In the town we could see beautiful mountains. I liked (い) to see them very much. She lived there with her husband, her son Takeshi, her mother and father. They were very kind to me.

In that evening, I enjoyed a nice dinner with her family. It was cooked by my grandmother. She is very old but can cook many kinds of Japanese food very well. I heard that Takeshi often learned the way to cook Japanese food by her.

Takeshi and I washed the dishes after dinner. When we were washing (う) them, Takeshi said to me, "I like my grandfather and grandmother very much. They always tell me to be kind to others. My grandfather knows about the history of the world. He often tells me interesting stories about it."

Two days later, my grandfather said to me, "How about (え) go for a drive?" I said, "Yes. That'll be fun." He drove Takeshi and me to a small river. We enjoyed fishing. We caught a lot of fish near the river.

I learned many things in Japan. Nowadays young people don't usually live with their grandfathers and grandmothers. They know many things very well. It is good for young people to live together with old people.

(注) Nowadays 最近
